

Whereas We the Subscribers, Owners of property bounding on Christ-Church Burial Ground, have opened Windows looking upon the said Burial Ground, We do hereby severally declare that we claim no right to the opening or to the keeping open of the said windows, but that the same is by the permission and at the sufferance of "The Rector, Church-Wardens and Vestry Men of the United Churches of Christ-Church, St Peter's Church & St James's Church in the City of Philadelphia" Owners of the said Burial Ground— And we do severally, each for himself, and not one for the other, and for our respective heirs and assigns, covenant & agree to & with the said Rector, Church-Wardens & Vestry Men, that upon their request or direction we will close up the said windows, and that during the time that they shall permit us to keep open, the same we will conform to & observe such rules and regulations touching the same as they or a Committee by them for that purpose appointed may direct— Witness our hands and Seals
